Klöckner & Co intends to acquire Macsteel Service Centers USA

Duisburg, Germany, January 19, 2011 – The Boards of Klöckner & Co SE and Macsteel Global B.V. are very pleased to announce that a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) has been signed for the acquisition of Macsteel Service Centers USA (“MSCUSA”) by a US subsidiary of Klöckner & Co SE (Klöckner USA Holdings). The effective date of the transaction is planned to be the 1st of January 2011 and the final agreement is expected to be signed and closed in the beginning of the second quarter 2011. The transaction will be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of both Parties as well as the Supervisory Board of Klöckner & Co SE and the antitrust authorities.

Gisbert Ruehl, Chairman of the Executive Board of Klöckner & Co SE “This acquisition would be an excellent strategic combination that will provide a platform for our future growth in North America. With the acquisition of Macsteel Service Centers USA, we would more than double our sales in the US, expand our geographical coverage and our product portfolio significantly. With that, we would expect to become one of the top three in the US steel distribution and service center industry with a meaningful spread of carbon steel products.”

Eric Samson will remain as the non-executive Co-Chairman of MSCUSA and join the Board of Klöckner USA Holdings in a non-executive capacity.

Michael Hoffman will remain the President and CEO of MSCUSA and will also join the Board of Klöckner USA Holdings in an executive capacity and is intended to become the CEO of the combined business.

Bill Partalis will continue in his capacity as CEO of Namasco Inc and will become President of the combined business.
